

Dr. Sidney Snyder taught AP History at Slippery Rock Area High School from 1976 to 2011 (retired). He has a Ph.D. in U.S. Diplomatic History from Kent State University. He is the co-editor, along with Lawrence S. Kaplan of "Fingerprints on History" The NATO Memoirs of Theodore C. Achilles.

Sue Mackulin

Deborah Corll is Director of Marketing and Development for the Balmoral School of Piping & Drumming, a Pittsburgh-based non-profit. With a strong background in non-profits, she has been with PCHE since its founding, serving as both President and State Coordinator. Formerly Project Manager for French and Indian War 250, Inc. and Pittsburgh 250, she oversaw the publication of "Pennsylvania's Forbes Trail: Gateways and Getaways along the Legendary Route from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh" and was instrumental in developing the Washington's Trail driving route throughout western PA, including roadway signage and accompanying maps and brochures. She resides in Wexford, PA.

Donna Watson is a resident of Pleasant Hills, PA. She is Elementary/Middle School teacher with West Jefferson Hills School District, and a member of Delta Kappa Gamma. Donna has been active in PCHE for the past seven years.

Dr. David Twining is professor of History at Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA.

Bradley Pflugh teaches history at Knoch High School, and Butler County Community College. A published author, he is frequently called upon as a speaker, and tour guide to Gettysburg Battlefield.

Andrea Reidell is an education specialist with the National Archives in Philadelphia.

Sean Humphreys is a 1992 Graduate of Slippery Rock University. He has been a Teacher and Social Studies Department Chair at Fort LeBoeuf High School, Waterford, PA, for 19 years. Activities and awards include Student Council Advisor, six-time District Champion PA Bar Association Mock Trial Advisor, two-time winner of Edinboro University and WJET Golden Apple Education Award, and PSEA and WQLN Great Teacher of 2006 Award. Sean resides in Harborcreek PA, with his wife Deborah and two children, Kylie and Ryan.

Chris Burtch has been a teacher at Slippery Rock High School since 1993, teaching primarily 20th Century American History and Economics before becoming the AP American History teacher in 2011. He received his M.A. in History from SRU in 1997 and contributed to a published work called "Basketball in America" in 2005.